CEO and Founder of Malhotra Legal Consultancy, FZ LLE

Chandni Malhotra is a distinguished legal professional, entrepreneur, and thought leader, known for her mission to simplify the law and make it accessible, allowing individuals and businesses to realize their full potential. Fluent in Hindi, English, and Punjabi, she is the Founder and CEO of Malhotra Legal Consultancy, a leading legal advisory firm based in the UAE, where she caters to global businesses, high-net-worth individuals, and multinational corporations.

Chandni holds a Master of Laws (LL.M) and a Master's in Political Science from the University of Delhi, along with multiple postgraduate diplomas in specialized legal fields. She brings over a decade of experience in the legal sector, having worked in India, the UAE, and across international jurisdictions. Prior to founding her firm, she was a practicing advocate in various Delhi Courts, where she represented clients in civil, criminal, and corporate matters. Her contributions to legal academia earned her recognition from the Chief Justice of India.

Chandni's leadership has rapidly transformed Malhotra Legal Consultancy into a trusted advisor for over 50 clients in just 14 months. Her firm's international reach spans the UAE, Mauritius, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, India, Canada, Jordan, Australia, and the UK, offering expertise in international business compliance, cross-border corporate structuring, and residency laws in emerging markets.

As a Visiting Law Faculty at Amity University Dubai for the past two years, Chandni brings both academic and practical legal experience to her students, inspiring the next generation of legal professionals. She has also taught law at prominent institutions in India.

Chandni is a frequent speaker on entrepreneurship, law, and international business regulations, and her media appearances include:

- Emirates Love Podcast – Discussing legal insights for entrepreneurs and expats in Dubai.
- Women of Wonder with Reema Mahajan – Addressing challenges for women entrepreneurs in Dubai.
- MoreBangForHerBuck – Sharing insights on women in business and financial independence.
- The Next Big Podcasting TNB Show – Exploring the future of legal services in the UAE.

Through her Instagram platform, @dubaifactology (with over 63K followers), Chandni simplifies complex legal concepts, making them accessible to entrepreneurs, investors, and expats, helping them understand the law with clarity and confidence.

Chandni's firm's official website (www.malhotralegalconsultancy.com) offers legal resources, client success stories, and insights into services like corporate structuring, compliance, and immigration.

Beyond Law – A Vision for the Future

Chandni is not just a legal expert but a visionary entrepreneur who is passionate about empowering others and making the world simpler through her work. Her mission is to support businesses and individuals in achieving their full potential with clarity and confidence, ultimately helping people find happiness through the positive impact of law.

Chandni's personal passions include travel, culture, and social impact. She has visited 22 countries in the last two years and is a firm believer in spirituality and veganism. Through her work and mentorship, she aims to create a world where people can thrive both personally and professionally.
